STATE DEMANDS U. S.: Stop Reds Sending Boys to Spain War

G-Man Boy Hunt Led By Hoover

PRINCETON, Fla., June 2 (AP)—J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, took charge of the James Bailey Cash, Jr., kidnaping case today while small boats and divers augmented a huge posse combing this area in the rain for a trace of the 5-year-old victim.

Arriving at Miami from Washington, Hoover hastened immediately to the FBI office where agents have been questioning several suspects for 24 hours. He refused to discuss the case and indicated he expected to be here several days.

Hundreds of men in veterans' uniforms and hunting togs, many with pistols at their belts, assembled at dawn and were taken out in farm trucks to the sectors as-

Communist Recruits Listed by Probers

Investigation by Congress of Communist activities here in recruiting Boston boys for service in the Red army in Spain was demanded by the special legislative investigating commission today.

"The commission believes that the inducing of our youth to enlist in the Loyalist army in Spain is a matter of Federal interest, and accordingly recommends that the General Court of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts memorialize Congress to investigate the activities within this State of persons engaged in sending men for service into armies other than our own," the commission's report urges.

Simultaneously, Washington dispatches revealed that national authorities already were aroused.

Rigid investigation into participation by Americans in "foreign disorders" has been ordered by President Roosevelt, it was stated, particularly as regards American fliers and the use of American-made planes in wars abroad.

The Justice, Commerce and War Departments, it was learned, have been instructed to begin investigating at once.

Contained in the report of the investigating commission here is a partial list of New England boys and men who served, or are serving, in the Spanish Government Red army.

This list, the report explains, was taken from a pamphlet entitled "Americans in Spain" and published by the Communist Party of New England, 15 Essex street, Boston.

"One of the organizers of the Lincoln Battalion recently remarked The New England contingent is one of the finest in the whole battalion," the report quotes this pamphlet as saying.

The list includes the names of Edward C. and Francis P. Flaherty, brothers, the facts concerning whose enlistment by Communists here were revealed by the Boston Evening American and Sunday Ad-

REDS Join to Halt China to Japs' MARCH

LONDON, June 2 (INS)—A far-reaching treaty between Russia and China, calling for immediate dispatch of powerful Soviet military aid to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek, has just been signed in Moscow, the Daily Mail said today in a dispatch from Riga.

Under the treaty, it was reported, the Soviet will send to China two motorized divisions of troops, 72 airplanes, deliverable immediately, and a large number of Russian military specialists, who will assist in reorganizing China's war administration.

The Communist experts also will help direct Chinese propaganda against Japan, according to the Mail. Dr. Sun Fo negotiated the treaty in Moscow, the newspaper added.

In a dispatch from Riga the London Times declared that since Dr. Sun Fo left Moscow Sunday for an "undisclosed destination," the report is current he concluded the "nine point agreement."

The Soviet government, which allegedly enjoys a privileged position on the Chinese exchange for extending material assistance, especially toward strengthening China's mechanized land forces and her air force and for delivering munitions, big guns and machine guns, is said to be preparing to give further assistance, the Times stated.

This further assistance, the newspaper reported, will be the sending of expert advisers and organizers to the behind-the-lines administration.

Jap Bombs Pave Way for Advance

SHANGHAI, June 2 (AP)—Warplanes of the army of Nippon again spread a trail of destruction today through towns and villages about the Lunghai Railway, and Japanese said this enabled their columns to make important gains.

The Japanese announced they had occupied a corner of Kibien, 20 miles south of Lanfeng, after an hour's fight. Chinese field gun positions were damaged heavily.

The Japanese aerial offensive continued also in South China, and the Canton railway got another of its daily bombardments.

Britain Seeks Spain Peace in Bold Plan

By WILLIAM HILLMAN

Copyright, 1938, by International News Service

LONDON, June 2 — A new and boldly-dramatic plan for bringing peace to Spain through the formation of a Spanish federated government guaranteed by Britain, France, Italy and Germany was decided upon by the British government today.

The "go ahead" signal for the far-reaching plan was given Prime Minister Chamberlain by his cabinet while Britain's foreign office drafted a virtual ultimatum to Generalissimo Francisco Franco, warning that further attacks on British ships will result in "drastic" retaliatory measures.

Unless Spanish insurgent planes cease immediately their bombing of British-owned cargo vessels in Spain's territorial waters, Great Britain will act to seize ships of Franco's trading fleet, it was learned the new warning will say. Lord Halifax, British foreign secretary, acted immediately to forestall future destruction of British vessels since, despite previous warnings to Franco, three ships of British registry have been bombed and sunk by insurgent planes during the past ten days.

Prime Minister Chamberlain's plan for ending the Spanish war, a conflict which has obstructed his plans for pacifying Europe, depends for its success upon the following steps soon to be launched by the British government:

1—Premier Mussolini and Chancellor Hitler must be asked to bring immediate pressure on insurgent General Franco to meet representatives of the Barcelona government in conference aimed at a truce, and eventually peace.

2—Premier Edouard Deladier of France will be requested to bring pressure on Government Spain in order to guarantee its delegates will take part in conversations with Franco.

3—Czechoslovakia will be warned to exercise greater caution in maintaining internal order with special emphasis on the country's pro-Nazi Sudeten minority since flaring of serious disorders would have far-reaching effects on European peace.

4—Chancellor Hitler will be immediately advised of the latter British action and he is to be informed that Great Britain will send Lord Halifax, foreign secretary, to discuss with Der Fuehrer the problem of returning certain pre-war colonies to Germany.

The peace plan stipulates that: A—Insurgent and government Spain are to agree to formation of a provisional compromise national government to be confirmed by a plebiscite.

B—Catalonia is to retain its provincial independence or autonomy within the framework of a national Spain.

C—France and Britain will advance credit for the resumption of normal business in Spain. D—This scheme is to be sponsored by Britain, France, Germany and Italy and the final treaty is to be termed a four-power pact of guarantee.

Cottage Small Solves Envoy's Housing Problem

LONDON, June 2 (AP)—The Joe Kennedy's think they have solved their own private British housing problem.

That's pretty good for the Kennedys since the ambassador's family includes nine children. And the British public—not to mention the British monarch—has shown a lively interest in how they all get along.

When petite, black-haired Mrs. Kennedy sailed last March from New York she sighed: "I don't suppose any place will be big enough."

When an Associated Press correspondent called the other day, he found her worst fears had materialized, and there had been displaced.

ONLY EIGHT BEDROOMS

Although the ambassador's official residence at 14 Prince's Gate has eight bedrooms it was indeed too small. But Mrs. Kennedy explained:

"We have taken a cottage in the country which should take care of the overflow unless the boys bring all of Harvard with them."

Another help will be the tours the children are going to take. The ambassador says he doesn't imagine the family ever will be home all at once. Already well-traveled, the younger children especially are enthusiastic sight-seers. They stood outside Buckingham palace one day and photographed the changing of the guard while mamma and papa were inside chatting with their Britannic majesties.

TALKED ABOUT CHILDREN

That formal interview went off with informal ease.

"They're very charming and natural," Mrs. Kennedy told me.

And what did they talk about?

"We just discussed the children. The ambassador said the children of the royal family were much less spoiled than some of the Kennedy children."

The Kennedy children have helped the Kennedys walk right into the circle of British interests. On their arrival, newspaper headlines read:

"Kids Take Over the Embassy!"

"King George Asks to See Kennedy's Nine Children."

"Queen Talks Babies With Mrs. Kennedy."

Of the ambassador one London paper said:

"The new American ambassador will be a great success . . . His reddish hair and his smile are completely disarming. What is more he possesses that excellent sense of good-humored irony which is the spice of American humor."

Of Mrs. Kennedy another writer said:

"She's still girlish-looking . . . but you see at once there's no ambassadorial situation likely to come her way with which she could not cope."

After she had gone over the list of names and whereabouts of the children (the two eldest boys are still at Harvard), Mrs. Kennedy was asked if she had any rule for raising a large family.

"I am loath to answer that question," she said, "until I see how my own family turns out."

Helping her are the family governess and a nurse whom she brought along, as well as a small staff of servants.

All in Step But Kennedy

LONDON, June 2 (AP)—United States Ambassador and Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy danced to music by a smart West End jazz orchestra in Buckingham Palace's famed white and gold ball room.

They were among 1000 "personal friends" of King George and Queen Elizabeth at the Derby Night ball.

The king and male guests wore evening dress with knee breeches—except Ambassador Kennedy. He wore ordinary long trousers with his tailcoat.

Countess Goes Job-Hunting

The young and pretty Countess Helen de Gasparin, former Boston stenographer, is job hunting in New York today.

But her mother, Mrs. Esther Coates of Orchard street, Cambridge, says:

"I'm proud of her, I'm prouder now than I ever was when she was the pampered darling of a rich and handsome nobleman husband."

"He's dead and the money's gone. But Helen has plenty of good Yankee spunk. She's willing and able to take care of herself and her baby."

As Mrs. Coates of Cambridge recalls it, her daughter's romance was like a movie love story.

The family lived in Wollaston when young Helen lost her job as a typist and went to New York.

There she met boyish, gallant, good-looking Count Andre de Gasparin, scion of an illustrious French family.

After their marriage, they went to Puerto Rico, where the count had a large estate. Four years of happiness followed.

But the count's partner ab-

Back in New York, the young count died a few weeks ago, beset with sorrow and worry.

Lily Pons Gets Waiver, Weds

NORWALK, Conn., June 2 (AP)—Lily Pons, French opera star, and Andre Kostelanetz, orchestra leader, were married at her Silver Mine home here today shortly after getting their wedding license.

The couple went from Town Clerk Clayton F. Gregory's office to that of Probate Judge Louis Goldschmidt, who agreed to waive the Connecticut five-day restriction clause.

The opera star gave her age as 33, and Kostelanetz said he was three years older. The singer was dressed in a blue suit and wore a jaunty straw hat.

Deb's Pet Coons In Brookline Hair

Cozily snoozing today atop a 90-foot elm tree in Longwood avenue, Brookline, a pair of runaway raccoons, escaped pets of sub-deb Polly Blodgett, were officially listed as Problem No. 1 of harassed town authorities.

The list of mischief attributed to the ring-tailed runaways was growing longer hour by hour today as police and fire executives pondered ways and means of capturing them.

Wealthy, pretty and popular young Polly Blodgett was torn between worry over the plight of her pets and concern over her social responsibilities as a member of the class being graduated today from exclusive Beaver Country Day school.

Polly's mother, socially prominent Mrs. Dorothy Cozman Blodgett of Longwood avenue, Brookline, was among the numerous persons who craned their necks to study the raccoons' tree-top refuge.

Mrs. Blodgett said the animals dug their way out of the pen at the Blodgett home four days ago.

Right at hand to answer that implied question was Mrs. Alice B. Pratt, also of Longwood avenue.

She's a bird-lover, not an animal lover. In the rear of her home, she has no fewer than 15 bird houses and bird baths, all tenanted.

"Those raccoons had me and my birds up at 4 a. m.," Mrs. Pratt told police.

"And goodness only knows where they've been and what they've been doing and how they've been eating ever since," she added.

"They were running back and forth across my roofs and eating all the food I put out for the robins, orioles and rose-breasted grosbeaks."

Add 100 Million For U.S. Projects

WASHINGTON, June 2 (AP)—The Senate overrode its appropriations committee today to restore the Public Works Appropriation in the lending-spending bill to $965,000,000, the amount previously approved by the House.

The action came on a standing vote after Senator Hayden (D., Ariz.) had led a floor fight to increase the $965,000,000 total which the committee approved.

During consideration of the appropriation Senator Wheeler (D., Mont.) opened a drive to earmark funds in the $3,247,000,000 lending-spending bill for specific purposes.

He asked the Senate to assign $100,000,000 of the proposed $965,000,000 PWA appropriation to reclamation and irrigation projects.

"If you want to add to the capital assets of my part of the country," he told the Senate, "this is the only way to do it."

"You know about the dust bowl. There have been drouths in the great plains states for years."

Several other anti-administration Senators also planned to submit earmarking proposals.

Wheeler submitted his amendment during Senate consideration of an appropriations committee recommendation that the House approved $965,000,000 PWA allocation to be cut to $865,000,000.

Senator Hayden urged that the House figures be restored, but Senator Adams (D., Colo.), floor manager for the relief bill, said the amendment was "about the only one that reduces the burden on the Treasury."

Earlier Secretary Morgenthau said Congress should give President Roosevelt virtually unlimited authority to determine how funds should be spent in the new relief, public works program.

"In the present situation where we do not expect Congress to meet again until next January, and do not know whether the economic situation will get better or worse," the Treasury chief said, "the wise thing would be to give the President the right, as he had in other bills, to transfer funds from one title to another in order to take care of the situation."

Killer Slips Somerville Police Net

Armed with sub-machine guns and tear gas bombs, Somerville police raided three homes in East Somerville today in vain search for the youth they want for the cold-blooded so-called murder of William Phillips, Perkins street store owner.

Raids were staged after a woman who refused to give her name called the police and said:

"You'll find the man who killed Phillips."

Meanwhile an 18-year-old Somerville youth sought yesterday by detectives for questioning walked into Somerville police headquarters today. No one paid any attention to him, and after lingering awhile he went to the desk and said he was the hunted youth. When he was told the detectives were out, he appeared nonplussed.

"Well, I'll be back," he said, and walked out.

Mayor John M. Lynch today called a special meeting of the aldermen for tomorrow night to appropriate a $500 reward for apprehension of the killer.

Phillips, father of five children, was killed by the leader of three kidnap men when he bravely attempted to beat off with a bar of milk bottles.

Lieutenant Daniel M. O'Connell of the Middlesex County detective force ordered the arrest of the Somerville youth after a 24-hour police guard at his home failed to trace him.

It was learned that no regular gallery picture of the suspect is available, although he had been arrested several times. An investigation was begun on the disappearance of the picture.

Even dwellers in a hobo "jungle" at Portland, Me., have been rounded up in search for the Somerville slayer. Portland police burning the makeshift hutsches of the "jungle" today in a clean-up job.

Slump? Orange on A Boom!

ORANGE, June 2—On the heels of a tax rate slash of $7.80 on $1000, this town again scoffed at "Recession" today when the Orange Shoe Manufacturing Company ordered a $45,000 expansion program and hiring of 50 more employees.

David Blum, executive vice-president, said new machinery would be installed in 10 days and other improvements made to facilitate production of men's and women's shoes.

The company now employs 310 of the town residents.

Recently Carl Stowell, chairman of the town board of assessors, indicated "good times" for Orange when the tax rate was cut from $47.80 to $40 due to substantial increase in receipts from motor vehicles excise taxes. More automobiles have been purchased by residents since 1937, he said.

With the shoe company's announcement was a report by Stowell that the town's revenue had increased from $85,000 to $108,000.

Senate Advances Liquor Sale Bill

By a standing vote of 16 to 4 the State Senate today passed for engrossment a bill that would permit the selling of liquor in Boston between midnight Saturday and 1 a. m. Sundays.

The measure moved toward enactment after an amendment of Senator Bernard L. Sullivan of Chelsea for extension of the law to include all of Suffolk County had been defeated. The matter was placed on the Monday calendar.

Doctors Rap Hurley Naming Of Jakmauh

Governor Hurley was sharply criticized today for his naming of Dr. Paul J. Jakmauh as state commissioner of public health in a resolution adopted unanimously at the Massachusetts Medical Society's 157th annual meeting.

Adoption of the resolution was one of the final pieces of business at the closing session of the three-day conference held at Hotel Bradford.

In the resolution, a copy of which was forwarded to the governor, he was urged to reappoint Dr. Henry D. Chadwick as commissioner, on the ground that Dr. Jakmauh has not received adequate training in this particular field.

Also at the final session, Dr. Channing Frothingham, president of the society, stated in his report that there are many poorly-equipped hospitals in Massachusetts and not a little "poor surgery" being performed in such institutions.

"This responsibility is ours," he said, "and it is up to us to clear it up."

Haigis in Fight For Governor

By ALFRED D. WHELTON

John W. Haigis of Greenfield, Republican nominee for governor in 1936, today announced his candidacy for the same endorsement this year.

The entry of Haigis, within a few weeks of the announcement by Leverett Saltonstall of Newton will give voters of the G. O. P. a difficult problem at the next primary.

With Fred Butler of Andover also a candidate, Republican voters will be faced with the task of selecting a gubernatorial candidate from the "Big Three" who were the leading factors in Republican affairs two years ago.

Butler, now chairman of the Essex County Commissioners, president over the Republican convention at which Haigis was nominated for governor and Saltonstall for lieutenant governor in 1936.

FOLDED HEAVY VOTE

The Greenfield candidate is considered by party leaders the strongest of the three in view of the vote he made against Governor Hurley in the last campaign. The margin of victory for the present governor was only 25,000 votes out of more than 2,000,000 cast.

For that reason it is known to be the wishes of certain party leaders that Saltonstall again seek the office of lieutenant governor and make way for another try by Haigis at the top spot on the ballot.

Butler has announced several times that he is in the race to stay and a three-sided contest is exactly what the party leaders do not want.

HAIGIS' STATEMENT

"A few weeks ago I stated that on or about June first, I would make my position known as to whether I would be a candidate for governor this year. At that time I had very definite evidence that there were thousands of men and women in this state who were ready to support me.

"Since that statement appeared the growing call to enter politics has been clear, substantial and genuine, and no person who loves his state, or who has a desire to serve its people could honestly ignore it.

"The restoration of decency in government, sound administration of our public affairs, and a rehabilitation of our public service are the ideals to which I pledge to devote all my ability and strength."

Blames NLRB For Fore River Labor Trouble

Only labor trouble Bethlehem Steel's Fore River shipbuilding plant has had in years has been caused recently by the National Labor Relations Board, acting on petitions of "outsiders and non-employees," W. H. Collins, Fore River general manager, testified today.

He was a principal witness at a Federal building hearing before NLRB Trial Examiner Henry Schmidt of Washington, D. C.

The hearing was arranged at request of agents of the Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers, which accuses the Fore River plant management of exercising improper influence on employees, in their choice of representatives.

Collins testified today that the Fore River plant is paying production workers, not including "white collar" workers, an average wage of $38 a week, which is "higher than any other shipbuilding plant is paying" and "ten per cent higher than boom wages of 1929."

General efficiency and morale has been so high at Fore River, Collins said, that "our poorest work on U. S. destroyers has been better than the best in any other Eastern yard."

Joe E. Brown's Pet Dog Poisoned

INGLEWOOD, Cal., June 2 (AP).

Police Chief Ben Fairbrother detailed detectives today to investigate poisoning of watchdogs and other pets at the Hollywood Turf Club's new racing plant.

The poisoned animals included a cocker spaniel attached to the stables of film comedian Joe E. Brown.

'Hands Across Sea' Clasp

"Hands across the sea" became hands joined in friendly greeting in fact today as representatives of America's oldest military organization, Boston's Ancient and Honorables, welcomed visiting members of the Honourable Artillery Company of London, England.

The London Honourables are here to help Boston's Ancient and Honourable Artillery Company celebrate its 300th birthday. The English outfit itself is 401 years old.

The visitors were to enter Massachusetts by way of Lawrence and Salem this afternoon, traveling by bus from New Hampshire, where they spent the earlier part of the day as guests of Governor Francis P. Murphy.

Mayor Maurice J. Tobin of Boston, and Lieutenant-Colonel Charles H. Cahill of Boston's Ancient and Honourable Artillery Company, were on hand as members of Governor Murphy's welcoming party.

Destination of the visiting Honourables here was the New Ocean House in Swampscott, where, tonight, they were to be guests of honor of their Boston cousins in arms.

Tomorrow there will be a luncheon in Faneuil Hall, which is the Boston company's armory. Following this, the London artillerymen will be received at the State House by Governor Hurley.

Tomorrow night there will be a ball in honor of the English visitors at the First Corps Cadets armory.

Saturday and Sunday, the visitors are to be escorted to points of historical interest around Boston.

The "big show," so far as the general public is concerned, will come Monday, when the Boston Ancient and Honorables will parade on Boston Common preceding their annual "drum-head" election.

Not even Old Merrie England can provide more pageantry than the Boston Ancient and Honorables parade in all their lavish and historic uniforms and trappings.

Originally, the company's "uniform" consisted merely of iron helmets and breastplates—all the equipment the outfit could scrape together or afford 300 years ago, when it was organized.

Robert Keayne, first commander of the Ancient and Honorables, lived in a house on the present site of the Old State House. Founded in 1638, the Ancient and Honorables was to be a "School for Officers and a Nursery for Soldiers."

Squeaks Fly Away

KANSAS CITY, June 2 (AP)—Andy Collins, owner of a service station, fixed that squeak in his automobile.

When he hoisted his car on the grease rack a mother sparrow flew out with three young from their nest between the gasoline tank and frame of the car. Collins removed the nest.

2 Sentenced To Jail in Fake Lottery

Pleading guilty to fraudulent use of the mails in a $5,000,000 fake Canadian sweepstakes lottery which victimized thousands of New Englanders, two New York men were given jail sentences in United States district court today.

Judge Hugh D. McClellan ordered Maurice Barach of Albany, N. Y., confined for a year and a day in a federal penitentiary. He sentenced Roy Hamlin of Glenn Falls, N. Y., to six months.

Barach, alleged ringleader in the fake "sweepstakes," was given until June 24 to arrange his personal affairs. A third defendant, Joseph C. Gagne of Rochester, N. Y., was given a six-months suspended jail sentence.

He pleaded guilty before trial of Barach and Hamlin started yesterday. The latter two retracted previous not-guilty pleas today.

Names of Greta Garbo and other movie stars were fraudulently used in promoting the scheme, which was finally exposed by Post Office Inspector Tennyson Jefferson of Boston.

Students Join Harvard Fight

An undergraduate campaign for reinstatement of two "liberal" Harvard economics instructors will be launched shortly in the college publications, it was learned today.

Petitions were being circulated against the cold but polite "No" which was President Conant's answer yesterday to a request that the two professors be taken back.

A committee of eight of Harvard's most-esteemed professors submitted a long-awaited report on the dismissal to President Conant. The report condemned his action as "both undesirable and unnecessary" and asked that Dr. J. Raymond Walsh and Dr. Alan R. Sweezy, instructors in economics, be given three-year appointments, to take effect next fall.

CONANT'S REPLY

President Conant replied today

PROF. J. RAY WALSH

in a letter to the board of overseers:

"To offer appointments to these would be to reverse the president's basic policy."

"FROZEN BUDGET"

Announcing the result of a year's investigation, which was begun in April last year when 131 younger teachers of Harvard demanded a probe, the committee exonerated President Conant of charges that Walsh and Sweezy had been dismissed for their alleged "radical" beliefs.

But the president's dismissal of the two "liberals" was a "serious misunderstanding," which arose because of improper interpretation of a college "frozen budget" ruling of 1936.

Five instructors in the department of economics were improperly "let go" under this "drastic" ruling, including Walsh and Sweezy.

Harvard Group On Glacier Base

VALDEZ, Alaska, June 2 (AP)—Harvard University's Alaskan expedition to survey the huge uncharted Chugach Mountain range rising off Prince William Sound today established its first base camp 5500 feet up on Matanuska Glacier, 60 miles west of here.

Bradford Washburn, young Harvard geographer and leader of the expedition, reported the fourth and final loss of equipment was landed Pilot Bob Reeve.

Restraining Order Modified by Court

NEW YORK, June 2—Attorney-General Bennett of the State of New York has consented to amendment of the restraining order signed by Supreme Court Justice Rosenman May 26 in the proceedings instituted relating to Continental Securities and several other investment trusts.

A modified order permits Paine, Webber & Co. to negotiate, purchase and sell in New York and elsewhere the portfolio securities of any investment trust in the usual course of business as stock brokers, on a commission basis, for the account of any investment trust. Paine, Webber & Co. originally was named as one of 41 defendants.

HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAINFUL BACKACHE

Caused by Tired Kidneys

Many of those gnawing, nagging, painful backaches people blame on colds or strains are really caused by tired kidneys—and may be relieved when treated in the right way. The kidneys are a nature's self-cleaning system. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisons from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste. If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. Then poisons are sent nagging backache, rheumatic pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headache and dizziness. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisons from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of bile into your bowels daily. If the bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sick and the world looks punk. A more bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. 25c. Stubbornly refuse any else.

Ankle Sox Still 'Out' for Malden Pupils

Ankle sox were still banned at Malden High School today as embattled Principal Thornton W. Jenkins waited "to be shown" that parents and girl students, generally, are in favor of the bare-legged style.

"Nothing has developed to convince me that the fad of wearing short hose, without long stockings underneath, is appropriate in high school classrooms," Principal Jenkins said.

"I'll have to be shown that mothers and fathers and the more sensible type of girl pupils differ with me before I change my mind."

Willing to "show" Principal Jenkins what she feels to be the error of his views on girlish styles, today, was Mrs. Esther W. Jordan, school committee member who started the fight for listing the anklesox ban.

She said she'll confer with the high school principal as soon as an appointment can be arranged.

In an interview given a Boston Evening American reporter, Mrs. Jordan, who is a practicing attorney and the mother of a 13-year-old boy, endeavored to make her point of view clearer.

"HE'S A DARLING"

"I am sorry it appeared that I said Mr. Jenkins is an old fuddy duddy," she said. "He was my high school principal, and I think he's a darling."

"I only meant that he has a fuddy duddy attitude about unimportant things, while really serious matters go over his head."

"The school play, 'Three Corners Moon,' had love scenes too pointed for adolescent minds."

"It had altogether too much profanity and it had some reference to babies that seemed to make light of motherhood."

"I maintain that we are confusing the moral standards of our children when we imply there is something evil in wearing ankle sox, then applaud them when they appear on the stage in a sophisticated play in which drinking is presented in its most attractive light and swearing is considered smart."

NOT A PRUDE

"I'm not a prude and I'm not objecting to modern dress, either for teachers or for children. I just feel school authorities shouldn't strain at a gnat and swallow a camel."

Crime Roundup Lands 2 in Toils

A 48-hour "crime roundup" in Worcester and Lynn resulted in arraignment of two alleged payroll bandits in Lynn district court today.

Held in $10,000 each, on charges of armed robbery, were Michael Karpicus, 21, of Dorchester street, Worcester, and William McManus, 24, of Green street, Lynn.

Karpicus was captured in Worcester yesterday, police said. He was then brought to Lynn for questioning.

Arrest of McManus in Lynn followed.

Both defendants are charged with a $1000 payroll holdup at the David H. Smith factory, Washington street, Lynn, Dec. 31, 1937.

But Worcester and Lynn police say they will be further questioned about other armed robberies in the two cities.

The governor was kept busy receiving congratulations.

Following are the names of Bostonians and other New Englanders who are among those enlisted by Communists here for service in the Red army in Spain, according to the special investigating commission's report:

SHELDON JONES—Maine Yankee, brother of Dave, also in navy. (At last report Sheldon Jones still was in France, and Dave Jones was working at 12 Newbury street, Boston, in the office of the agent of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade, in which office his wife is also employed.)

He succeeded Manuel Blank in this post after an order of a justice of the Supreme Judicial Court in Suffolk County was issued to Blank requiring the production of certain records. ROBERT M. TAYLOR—Yankee from Boston. Mother, grandmother in Daughters of American Revolution. He carries forward real revolutionary traditions. Member of the White Collar Union.

DANIEL A. FITZGERALD—Irish-American. Born in Saugus. Lived in Norwood and Boston. Twice wounded. Political commissar in first infantry company. Communist candidate for Senator in 1936.

FRANK ZEIDMAN—Jewish-American from Chelsea. (Communist Party member; not in the firing line but employed as a carpenter at Albacete, Spain.)

DAVE WALBA—Jewish-American. From Boston. (Reported that he was killed in Spain, was a member of the young Communist League, and about 19 years old.)

WILLIAM HATHAWAY—Irish-American from Boston. Member of Radio Telegraphers' Union of Boston.

CIO Aide Raps Red Charges

The special investigating commission's report that Communist leaders occupy strategic positions of leadership in the CIO is so "perilous in content as to meet the laughter of all reasonable men, and yet so deliberate in malice as to meet their sincere and severe condemnation."

That was the statement today by Frank J. Manning, New England regional director for the Textile Workers' Organizing Committee (CIO). Manning also is an executive member of the Boston Democratic city committee.

"The report," he declared, "puts every member of the Senate and House squarely in the center of the labor conflict."

"Labor," he said, "will call to account at the polls any member of the Legislature who now or hereafter may approve the CIO or its member unions."

from New Hampshire.

WALTER STRASS—German-American from Providence, R. I.

JOHN VILLEMAIRE—French-Canadian from Lowell. Member of an A. F. of L. union.

U. S. Red Probe

verifier almost a year ago. (Other names on Page 8.)

At the same time Senator Sybil Holmes, chairman of the legislative commission, exonerated the three teachers, named by initials in the commission's report, who, the report states, were unwilling to look of Communist propaganda agents.

CIO IN DENIAL

Equally vehement were denials by the National Maritime Union and the CIO here, charged in the commission's report with being controlled by Communist leaders.

Two of the Boston school teachers named in the report were to appear voluntarily before the school committee to describe the manner in which they were "approached" by Red agents.

They are Miss Evelyn H. Hurwitch, 26, of Blue Hill avenue, Roxbury, kindergarten teacher at the Aaron Davis School, and Miss Helen Cohen, a Teachers College senior.

Mrs. Robert W. Abrahams of Chiswick road, Brighton, a former teacher named in the legislative approach to join the Communist

Meanwhile, the National Maritime Union at New York and the New England office of the Committee for Industrial Organization emphatically denied allegations in the report that they are controlled by Communists.

"No political party, or other outside of the union," controls this union," a spokesman for the N. M. U. said.

CHILDREN TARGETS

Various language groups and Communist fraternal organizations are pursuing the work of training younger children in Marx's doctrine of class struggle, the report asserts. Among these is named the International Workers Order, which, it is stated, sets up organizations of "juniors" which follow the policies and use the publications of the Young Pioneers.

"Much of the actual work in the winter marches to and demonstrations at the State House in Boston was done by Young Communist leaders under the supervision of Communist Party leaders," the report declares.

The report charges—

"The Young Communist League has sought to radicalize our youth in the Civilian Conservation Corps camps."

It quotes the "Manifesto and Principal Resolutions Adopted by the Eighth Convention of the Communist Party, U. S. A." (1934) as saying:

"Although work has been conducted in the CCC camps, during the past year... the hundreds of strikes and actions that took place are only indicative of the mass upsurge among these youths and the possibilities of developing a mass movement in these camps."

New Deal Axe Over Tydings

By GEORGE R. HOLMES

International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 2—The Democratic cleavage between the 100 per cent New Dealers and those recalcitrants who have opposed much of President Roosevelt's legislative program widened perceptibly today.

Within an hour after he had been to the White House, Representative David J. Lewis, a veteran progressive Democrat who has been in the forefront in supporting the administration, announced he would oppose Senator Millard E. Tydings in the Maryland primary in September.

Tydings, a conservative, has probably been an anti-New Deal as any member of the Senate in his voting record.

WHITE HOUSE BACKING

Asked pointblank whether he had been assured of White House support in his race, Lewis said:

"The White House speaks for itself."

The White House was silent. There is scant doubt, however, that sooner or later the White House will find means to let the Democrats of Maryland know that it prefers Lewis over Tydings.

In Georgia, where it had seemed the conservative Senator Walter F. George might slip through unopposed, there appeared in the field a 100-per-cent New Deal proponent in the person of Lawrence S. Camp, a federal district attorney.

ONLY DEALER IN RACE

Camp's announcement followed decision of Gov. Ed Rivers to run for re-election instead of opposing George. Ex-Gov. Eugene Talmadge, who once was committed to the platform of keeping the New Deal "out of Georgia," is a third candidate in this senatorial race, so that Camp alone is the 100 per cent New Deal candidate.

6 Tech Boys Guilty, Fined After Rioting

All six Massachusetts Tech students, arrested in the Memorial Day "riot" at the institute, were found guilty of disturbing the peace by Judge Robert Walcott in East Cambridge Court today.

Harry Sedgwick, 18, New Bedford, was found not guilty, however, of charges of assault and battery upon Policeman William Anderson, and Otto Arnold, 18, New York City, was found not guilty of charges of larceny of Anderson's cap and badge.

Sedgwick and Arnold each were fined $15 on the disturbing the peace charge. They appealed, and were ordered to put up $100 bail each.

Barrett L. Taft, of New Haven, likewise fined $15, paid his fine. The court's findings with regard to Arthur J. Weinberger, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; William Hazleton, 26, Ripon, Wisconsin; and Frederick Eddon, 23, of Los Angeles, were filed.

Miss Helen Stanwick, East Sixth street, Cambridge, was a witness. She told Judge Walcott:

"Every time a girl passes Technology, the students want to make dates with her."

She was passing just prior to the "riot," she testified, and someone threw a paper bag full of water at her.

"I said, 'You stupid fools, look what you're doing!'" she testified, "and someone called back, 'Oh, go lay an egg!'"

Welansky Bail Plea Is Denied

James Welansky, 41, former president and treasurer of the Metropolitan Hotel Corporation, was held to the grand jury without bail on a finding of probable cause for the murder of David J. ("Beano") Breen by Judge John Duffy in municipal court today.

Judge Duffy found probable cause despite testimony of a half dozen witnesses that they saw the murder and that the shooting was done by a "man in dark clothing wearing dark eyeglasses," who entered the hotel lobby as Breen stood talking to Welansky.

Welansky's own statements at an inquest on April 1, at which time he admitted being within a few inches of Breen when the latter was shot, was sufficient, however, to "show he had exclusive opportunity" to do the shooting, Judge Duffy decided.

signed for the second day of the search.

The hunt was extended northward through palmetto thickets, weeds and flat truck farm lands.

The senior Cash and his wife remained secluded in their frame apartment building, although the father came to the door to receive three telegrams.

It was learned that the anguished mother, who had been prostrate with grief, finally was sleeping.

Among those questioned by the G-men were a middle-aged carpenter and his son and a former federal convict.

The posses, covering an area of 80 square miles, turned in a number of articles that might or might not be clues. Among them were two striped convict's outfits complete with hat, jacket and trousers found in a field.

A $500 reward for the capture and conviction of the kidnaper was posted by the Palm Beach council and the Dade (Miami) County commission offered $1000 reward on conditions still to be specified by federal agents.

DETAINED FOR QUIZ

Those held for questioning by the Federal Bureau of Investigation at Miami are M. F. Braxton, a carpenter who was taken into custody near the scene of the kidnapping yesterday; Braxton's son, Warren, 25, who later voluntarily went to the Federal Bureau of Investigation office and was detained for questioning; and Willard Campbell of Miami, a former convict in the Atlanta Federal penitentiary.

At least two other persons, a young woman and a young man, were questioned last night, but later were released.

G-MEN SILENT

G-men refused to discuss the reasons for apprehension of the three persons held. Campbell, who was arrested in Miami last night, had been under surveillance for several days, it was reported.

Campbell's divorced wife lives near the spot where the ransom money was paid, but she refused to talk to reporters.

Braxton's wife said she was at a loss to explain the seizure of her husband. She said she believed he had stopped at the Cash filling station on Saturday, the night of the kidnapping, but had returned home and was in bed by 11 p. m. or a little after. The abduction has been placed between 10 and 10:30 p. m.

leged to have had a part in running an original investment of $5 up to the staggering $16,000,000 total — and then "milking" the trusts of about one-quarter of the assets, including "commissions" of $400,000.

Counsel for Attorneys Morris and Robb assert they simply acted as agents for the promoters in floating a $300,000 Boston loan.

Today it was disclosed by John H. Backus, director of the Massachusetts state division of securities, that his department had five of the trusts under probe since last November.

For several months, Backus said, he and his acting chief inspector, Edward Mahoney, have been working in co-operation with Assistant Attorney-General Ambrose McCall of New York state.

Last April 20, according to Backus, he banned the sale of Backus, Inc., securities. Attorney Robb was a director of Backus, Inc., Backus asserted.

Pass Ashurst Bill!

The Editor Says: The kidnap-murder of twelve-year-old Paul Levine in New York and the abduction of John James Bayley, Jr., in Florida concern all Americans, and more than those Americans who comprise the United States Senate.

Americans generally are concerned because in every parent's mind there is the fear that his son or daughter might some day be seized, held for ransom and slain.

Senators are concerned for the same reason and for the ADDITIONAL reason that the power to stop kidnapping when a crime in their hands HAS NOT BEEN USED.

More than two years ago Senator Ashurst of Arizona told how other nations had abolished this horrible crime and proposed legislation to give America similar safety. He said:

"As long as there are rewards for kidnapping, that offense will continue. PROFIT is the INCENTIVE for the crime."

"As long as we shackle government agencies and give kidnappers a CLEAR FIELD to prey on anguished parents, we are encouraging their activities."

"When would-be kidnappers are made to understand that they can collect NO MONEY, our children will be safe."

Senator Ashurst pointed to Canada and showed how that country had been able to deal with criminals in the LEAST kidnapping case AND SAVED A LIFE.

He said that the government dealt with the Levine tragedy when a woman accused followed a "hands-off" policy and FORGOT TO A LIE.

He said now compare it with recent Mattoon case on the West Coast.

He said also compare with the more recent Levine case. In each case no money was done and eventually the little boy was found MURDERED.

THE IMPORTANT DUTY of the Senate is to revive the Ashurst Bill TODAY and to enact it into law. Let Senators take a long FIGHTLE by stripping it of PROFIT.

They should then would protect grief-stricken parents against "hands-off" It would place Government agents between them and kidnappers.

I would know the mighty power of the Government of the United States against the kidnappers, not a week or a month AFTER the crime, but INSTANTLY.

We must discard the belief that this would be an act of cruelty to stricken fathers and mothers.

It would not be cruel at all. Rather it would do everything humanly possible to hasten the recovery of the child from depressed persons whose records prove that they usually kill and abduct their own victim.

MURDER AGAIN brings to public attention the brutality of New England firearms laws.

In Connecticut, William Phillips, sole support of his invalid wife, an elderly mother, his own three children and the two children of his dead sister, is killed in a holdup.

Will our Senators and Representatives ever wake up? Will they ever face the fact that so long as revolvers and pistols can be easily obtained human life will be readily taken?

Look at the Massachusetts Senators and Representatives to whom the Somerville tragedy gun. But it is not too late to stop other guns which, unless new laws are written, will surely cause more tragedies.

The Political Parade

By GEORGE ROTHWELL BROWN

WASHINGTON, June 2. FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT stepped clear outside the Constitution of the United States when at Arthurville last week he took an unprecedented crack at Congress with the heads of 13 cabinet members.

It isn't the fact that he permitted the new law to become a statute without his signature which makes his action unique in American history. It is the fact that he did not merely permit the law to go down the books without his formal approval but that he accompanied it by a speech setting forth his reasons.

IN 1912 President John Tyler signed a bill making it a law, and then with it an exposition of his reasons FOR SIGNING IT.

A committee of Congress was appointed to investigate the President's action. It found that the President had no constitutional right to comment upon his action in signing a bill, and that a "legitimate president" had been established (House Report 909, 2d Session, 27th Cong.)

President Tyler narrowly escaped the censure of Congress. Earlier than this President Andy Jackson had crossed the line of Congress by a similar act, exercising his constitutional authority.

HOWEVER, the Doughton-Harrison Act and the first revenue law which a President has permitted to go upon the statute books without his signature.

Mr. Roosevelt probably would be surprised to find himself compared to Andrew Cleveland. For the matter so would the rest of the cabinet.

It was a President Cleveland who took an action identical with the course of Mr. Roosevelt in this instance, with the exception of the comment.

The House was back in session last week and the recalled Wilson Tariff Bill to carry out President Cleveland's campaign program.

When it came to the Senate, of which Arthur H. Gorman, of Maryland, was the undisputed boss, that body added 600 amendments. After swearing to high Heaven not to submit to the outrage, the House finally swallowed the whole 600.

Mr. Cleveland was enraged. He couldn't very well veto the bill maybe he didn't have the nerve, either. He permitted it to become a law without his name being signed at the bottom.

But he didn't step outside the Constitution and give Congress a tongue-lashing for it.

Marry-Go-Round

WHAT'S the use of individual drinking cups, as long as kisses are passed around as freely and carelessly as the old dipper and the old roller towel?

When a woman cooks, sews, scrubs and nurses for money, that's labor. When she does it for nothing, that's love!

When a bachelor complains that women never form a just estimation of him, he doesn't know how lucky he is.

There is nothing more acute than the sense of frustration from which a husband suffers when the house is burnt or he can't find his morning newspaper.

What of Today, Tomorrow?

Doctor Explains Why We Are Living Longer

As time and medical science progress, so does the life span of man increase. And some of the most outstanding victories of medical research for years have been in the fields of pneumonia, cancer and tuberculosis.

Dr. Frank Randolph Philbrook of the State Department of Public Health is waging some of the battles constantly being waged.

By PAUL WHELTON

Boston Evening American Staff Writer

Massachusetts may well boast that it has an excellent comparative record in the reduction in the number of deaths from such diseases as pneumonia, cancer and tuberculosis.

To the State Department of Public Health, to leading hospitals of the Commonwealth and to the Massachusetts Medical Society, Dr. Frank Randolph Philbrook gives principal credit for this achievement.

"IN THE RESEARCH WORK IN PNEUMONIA WE HAVE BEEN ABLE TO REDUCE THE NUMBER OF DEATHS FROM THE DISEASE OVER A 10-YEAR PERIOD, FROM 7000 DEATHS ANNUALLY TO ONLY 700 DEATHS. THIS LAST FIGURE BEING FOR THE YEAR 1931," Dr. Philbrook told the Boston Evening American today.

"This is a remarkable decrease greater than that of any other state in the Union."

"One of the main reasons for it is the use of serum and the stressing of the importance of this advice to adults: 'Consult your doctor when you have a cold and fever.'"

"The use of serum in the early stages, after the type of germ has been traced, may often save a life."

"HERE IN THIS STATE WE HAVE SERUMS TO FIGHT THE FIVE MOST DREADED TYPES OF PNEUMONIA."

NAMELY, TYPES 1, 2, 5, 7 AND 8. IN ALL THERE ARE 30 DIFFERENT PNEUMONIA GERMS AND DR. PHILBROOK MEDICAL SCIENCE IS STILL CONDUCTING RESEARCH WORK IN THE COMBAT AGAINST THEM.

"Approximately 50 per cent of pneumonia germs can be treated while the rest remain a mystery."

"When pneumonia is first suspected, a physician should be called. Figures show that five deaths out of every 100 persons treated occur when the disease has been discovered in the first day stage, 10 out of every 100 the second day, 14 out of every 100 the third day, and 30 out of every 100 beyond the three-day period."

"TWENTY-FOUR HOURS A DAY THE 84 PNEUMONIA-TYPING BUREAUS, LOCATED IN HOSPITALS AND CONDUCTED BY THE STATE, ARE OPEN AND READY TO EXAMINE AND CLASSIFY PATIENTS' SPECIMENS SO AS TO DETERMINE THE TYPE OF PNEUMONIA GERM."

"Serum is given the physician to combat the germ and speedy action may mean the saving of a life. Failure and delay in calling a doctor with the first symptoms frequently result in death."

"In the past, the country physician was unable adequately to cope with this dread disease and the loss of life from simple pneumonia was tremendous."

"In the matter of cancer, various forms of treatment are advanced from time to time and new plans of attack against this disease have resulted in an appreciable reduction in fatalities."

"Frequently do people ask physicians the cause for cancer, but the answer still remains the same: the causation is unknown."

"HOWEVER, THE STATE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH IS WORKING UNTIRINGLY ON THE PROBLEM AND ITS CONTRIBUTIONS ARE CONSTANTLY ADDING TO THE KNOWLEDGE OF THIS DISEASE."

"Despite some beliefs, CANCER IS NOT A HOPELESS DISEASE. If situated where it can be recognized in the early stages, it can be cured."

"At the present time, according to Dr. Lombard, in charge of that commission about 1000 cures are being effected each year here in Massachusetts. This figure could be much more rapid if with early recognition and prompt, adequate therapy."

"WE FIND THAT A SURVEY OF 1000 CASES AT MASSACHUSETTS GENERAL HOSPITAL SHOWED THAT 60 PER CENT HAD SYMPTOMS WHICH SHOULD HAVE CALLED ATTENTION TO THE CONDITION FAR EARLIER."

"Recent surveys also reveal that about 60 per cent of the cancer deaths in this state are among females."

"The disease rarely occurs under the age of 30, about one-sixth of the cases appear before the age of 50, and more than three-fourths of the total show up between the ages of 50 and 80 years."

"THIS FAR IN OUR INVESTIGATION, HOWEVER, THERE HAS BEEN FOUND NO INDICATION THAT CANCER IS CONTAGIOUS OR THAT IT IS HEREDITARY."

"What the commission is aiming at is, of course, a continuation of the death rate decrease in cancer as well as in other diseases."

"We are doing this partially through educating the public as to the early signs and symptoms of cancer, pneumonia and tuberculosis and through keeping physicians informed of progress in the methods of treatment."

"The establishment of clinics through the Commonwealth is a means toward both these ends."

"In general, the span of life is increasing AS THE RESULT OF MEDICAL RESEARCH, and persons who live normal existences, follow the same rules of health and consult physicians in the first stages of illness will enjoy ADDED YEARS."

Tomorrow, another leading physician will discuss modern methods of prolonging life.

YOU CAN BE BEAUTIFUL Blackhead Remedy Turns Skin to Fine-Grained Pastel

ONLY the clearest skin can stand close scrutiny, and if you turn in dismay from an eager, searching glance because you're dreadfully unsure of your complexion... follow Arline Gould's advice. Then you can take a close-up as devastating as this one of Rosella Towne!

By ARLINE GOULD

YOU remember the loveliness of your skin when you were a little girl... fragile, fine-grained, radiant... with a paste softness that was utterly dazzling. You didn't guard it very fiercely, however, because you believed that nothing... neither sun nor wind, soap or water... could ever ruin it.

But have you taken a good look at yourself lately? If you have, you probably discovered that the skin of a young woman isn't the same as a young man's. It's not the same as a young man's. It's not the same as a young man's. It's not the same as a young man's.

It is a good face of course, but it's not the same as a young man's. It's not the same as a young man's. It's not the same as a young man's. It's not the same as a young man's.

Blackheads are among the most persistent of skin blemishes. They are caused by a clogging of the pores of the skin. They are caused by a clogging of the pores of the skin.

Robert Wrestles 'Crusher,' June 14

Yvon Robert, colorful French heavyweight, was signed to battle Steve Casey in a bout for the heavyweight championship of the world following his victory over Dazzler Clark at the Garden on June 14.

Robert tossed Clark in 22m, 2s, with a top body press after a spirited contest.

Casey had previously signed a contract with Bowser to meet the winner of the Robert-Clark tussle. Robert affixed his signature to a contract before he left the Garden, and will immediately start training for Casey.

In a recent Garden bout, Casey was awarded a questionable decision over Robert. Robert was disqualified by Referee Ted Tonneman after his manager, Eddie Quinn, punched the referee. At the time each wrestler had a fall to his credit. Quinn insisted Tonneman refused to give Robert a toss to which he claimed he was entitled.

Dick Shikat threw Pietro Gebbo in the companion feature. In the other matches:
Wladislaw Talon threw Tommy Hanley in 15:51. Maurice Robert and Butch Reilly drew in 23m.

Finklestein Beaten By Schultz at Arena

Adolph Schultz defeated Harry Finklestein in the main bout at the Arena when the latter was unable to continue due to a leg injury. Finklestein took the first fall with a body lift and slam in 25m, 47s. Other results:
Mickey Travers threw Buster Jones; Bug Dussette and Mike Kelly, draw; Pat Schaeffer and Paul, draw; Ted Germane and Phil Wade, draw; battle royal won by Tom Papalino, eliminating Larry Astor, Bill Bern and Frank Eddels.

Yanks Balk

At Bees Offer

Charley Keller, the clouting outfielder of the Newark Bears of the International League, is one piece of baseball "ivory" who is getting more valuable with age.

Last year when he led the International's batters with a .353 average after coming straight from the U. of Maryland, Keller was the answer to 15 big league managers' prayers, but just a pleasant problem to Joe McCarthy of the New York Yankees.

McCarthy would have liked to use the 21-year-old slugger but with a few guys named diMaggio, Henrich, Selkirk and Hoag around, there wasn't room in the outfield for the prize rookie of the circuit, so Keller was forced to remain with the Bears.

The youthful flycatcher hasn't wasted any time on regrets. He's been powdering the ball at such a murderous clip that Bob Quinn, the general manager of the singleless Boston Bees, vainly offered $75,000 for him.

SPORTS REVIEW

By International News Service
Henry Armstrong probably will be the first fighter, it was indicated, to hold three championship titles at the same time.

Cochrane of the Detroit Tigers is pleased by work of Fitcher Vernon Kennedy, who has scored eight wins so far this season without a defeat.

Walker Cup team members played a round of golf on the old course at St. Andrews to warm up for the matches tomorrow.

CHARLES YATES

vs. Frank Pennick and Leonard Crawley of England.

Foursomes play will begin at 10 a. m. (4 & m. Eastern Standard). Eight singles matches on Saturday will complete the series in which the United States has won all nine previous competitions.

A howling wind and cold weather prevented both squads from practicing today.

Trojan Tracksters Choice in I. C.-4A

NEW YORK, June 2 (AP)—Confident of "34 points," enough to win, Dean Cromwell and his Southern California U. squad were the chief attractions today as the picked athletes of 31 colleges made ready for the outdoor championships of the Intercollegiate A. A. A. A. at Randall's Island stadium tomorrow and Saturday.

Although Olympic champions and sophomore phenoms mingled in the largest concentration of track talent since the 1936 Olympic try-outs in the same stadium, the talk was all of the Trojans might.

They were first on the scene, too. Cromwell took his squad of 17 up to the field yesterday after they arrived in the morning and today they were joined by the California team and the University of California at Los Angeles' one-man squad, Tom Berkeley, the low hurdler, as well as the teams of the more distant eastern colleges.

Cromwell, who claims his team's strength has been over-estimated by enthusiastic native sons and awed easterners, believes competition will be "awfully tough in the I. C. 4-A."

PLACED IN IS OLYMPICS

"But this is a lucky field for us," he added. "We placed 10 men on the Olympic team when the final trials were held here."

The Trojans have men in 16 of the 15 events that comprise the championships and they may score in all 16. When you consider that seven of them are contenders for first place, it is obvious why the Trojans are favored to win.

Cromwell praised Adrian Talley, captain and dash man, whom he called "my most valuable man," and then warned all within hearing not to see Erwin Miller, his quarter-mile, short.

"He will be in there against that Woodruff," said Cromwell, referring to long John Woodruff, the Negro who leads Pittsburgh's defending champions.

EAST SURE UP HAMMER

The hammer throw is the only field event the East is confident of winning. The West has no entries and Ivy University of Rhode Island State is a heavy choice.

The Trojans, however, have ten of their entries in other field events: Loring Day, Ken Dike and Irv Howe, pole vaulters; Delos Thurber and Clark Mallory, high jumpers; Chuck Soper and Reed Truesel, javelin throwers; Phil Gassar and Art Wrotnowski, discus throwers; and Bob Fisher, shot-putter.

As one Eastern coach put it, "if their track men all look the wrong subway, those fellows would win the meet all by themselves."

Max Baer Denies Bout With Pastor

Alameda, Cal., June 2 (INS)—Rumors that Max Baer, former world's heavyweight champion, would fight Bob Pastor, while the big fight in September and that's coast, were exploded by the Livermore butcher, here today.

"I'm signed with Jacobs to fight the winner of the Louis-Schmeling fight in September and that all there is to it. Any reports that I am in line for fighting anyone else are a lot of hokey."

Ghezzi Shoots 72 On 'Open' Course

DENVER, June 2 (AP)—Vic Ghezzi and Henry Picard, first of the golfing elite to arrive for the national open tournament June 3 to 11, took the "toughened up" Cherry Hills course in stride.

Ghezzi shot a 35-37—72 yesterday—club par on the course, but one over par for the open. Picard used one shot more.

John Montague, Hollywood "mystery" golfer, was expected with a party today.

Clark Griffith Says:

Sox Need Pitching; Sees Grove Folding

WASHINGTON, June 2 (AP)—Clark Griffith—one of baseball's oldest and shrewdest stockholders—looked over the inventory of the American League pennant race today and reached the natural conclusion for a proud parent.

"Cleveland," he snorted, "won't do. Not with that infield. Wait until the sun bakes the diamonds and base hits start going past those infielders."

Boston, Mr. Griffith? "They won't do either," he said. "No pitching. Hot weather's going to get Grove. From now on I'll bet you he won't win more games than he loses."

How about the Yankees? "I ain't impressed," said the old fox. "They're just a three-man team—DiMaggio, Dickey and Ruffing. They were a great team, but they won't win the pennant this year."

Detroit? "They've got somebody catching who can hit, but they ain't got nobody hitting who can catch. Rowe and Bridges don't look any too good either."

What about Chicago? "I never did like that team," said Griffith, "and they've got an outfield full of shoemakers. It's a wonder some of those fellows don't get hit on the head the way they field."

Philadelphia and St. Louis? "I never kick a man when he's down," said Griffith, "well, anyway, not when he's way down."

The Senators, Mr. G. "In the first place," he said, "they ain't the Senators—they're the Nationals. And—don't count them out. We're leading the league in fielding and in second place in hitting and our two best hitters ain't hitting."

The Senators—no, the Nationals are the Old Fox's choice. Incidentally, if anybody knows where Mr. Griffith can buy two pitchers and a right-handed hitting outfielder, he can do a lot of business with the president of the Washington ball team.

Rickey Seeks Spot For Paul Dean

ST. LOUIS, June 2 (INS)—Vice-President Branch Rickey of the St. Louis Cardinals is looking around for a spot in baseball for Paul Dean, brother of Dizzy, and the second half of the "Me'n' Paul" combination which made pitching history a few years ago.

Paul, sent to Houston in the Texas League from the Cards, has been returned by the minor league club and is without a job. Rickey said, however, he expects to "place" Paul within a few days.

Hunt Hub Lawyer In Huge Swindle

Had Given Promise to Surrender

Failure of a third Boston attorney to surrender today in connection with the $16,000,000 New York investment trust swindle sent Boston police detectives on a search for him, armed with a fugitive warrant.

The attorney, one of Boston's most prominent barristers, is one of the two men under indictment, who have not yet been apprehended.

He had promised to surrender to Boston police at 10 a. m., but failed to appear. Detectives James V. Crowley and Thomas Conaty, who arrested two other lawyers yesterday, then began their search. Those arrested yesterday and bailed in $5000 as fugitives from justice in New York are Thomas W. Morris and Ralph H. Robb.

Arrested in New York was Attorney Vincent Ferretti and in Washington, D. C., Philip A. Frost, son of a former congressman.

In the indictments they are alleged to have conspired to defraud investors.

CIO Calls Ship Strike In New York

NEW YORK, June 2 (INS).—The National Maritime Union called a portwide "sit-down" strike aboard all American ships in New York harbor today as a demonstration of strength.

The union is affiliated with the CIO and was branded Communist-controlled by a special Massachusetts legislative committee.

Joseph Curran, its general organizer, claimed a total of 4300 workers were sitting down. He said 1100 were on 12 passenger ships, 700 aboard 20 freighters, and 2500 in shipyards and on piers.

Joseph P. Ryan, president of the rival Longshoremen's Union, denounced the strike.

The dispute arose when A. F. of L. longshoremen refused to load the freighter Sea Thrush while its CIO crew of 31 men was aboard.

Stocks Advance, Then Retreat

NEW YORK, June 2 (AP).—Climbing power seeped out of the stock market today after leaders had pushed up fractions to more than $2 a share.

Steels led the initial forward tilt, but these eventually yielded most of their gains under profit-taking. Activity was small on the retreat.

Contempt Warrant in Revere Sift

In a precedent-setting action, Assistant Attorney-General John S. Derham, leader in the "blue ribbon" grand jury probe into Revere racket conditions, today obtained a contempt of court warrant against Jacob Turransky, Revere.

Turransky, known better as "Dutch Turner," was a witness yesterday before the grand jury and perjured himself, it is charged in the complaint filed with Judge Lewis H. Goldberg in superior court.

Even as the warrant was being obtained in a borrowing of weapons used by Inst.-Atty. Thomas E. Dewey, the New York racket buster, Turransky was waiting to go again before the grand jury on a recall.

Turransky later appeared before Judge Goldberg and was ordered held in $3000 bail for hearing June 20. He denied the allegations.

Not long after Turransky was arraigned another witness who already has testified before the grand jury that he never had been in the North Shore Club, a horse room raided and closed by state police on February 22 a year ago.

This, it is set forth, was despite grand jury testimony by State Trooper Edgar T. Lindstrom and former Trooper John Tullis that, as undercover men, they were in the club on a number of days preceding the raid and saw Turransky there often.

Berlin Hits Detention of English Girl

MISS FREEMAN-MITFORD

BERLIN, June 2 (AP).—Berlin morning newspapers in a renewed anti-Czechoslovak campaign today described the search of Miss Unity Freeman-Mitford in such banner headlines as "Waylaid Methods in Czechoslovakia."

Carrying the report under London date lines, the papers added that the daughter of Lord Redesdale of England was stripped by Czechoslovak women police officials while her car was searched, the upholstery cut open and the tires removed.

Miss Freeman-Mitford, according to reports current in Prague, incurred displeasure of Czechoslovak by openly demonstrating pro-Fascist leanings and wearing swastika emblems while sojourning there.

Man Nobody Wants Can't Woo Death

Even the WPA didn't want him.

In Chicago today, Charles Wellman, Harvard graduate six years ago and son of a Woburn minister, looked over his record of failure.

"I'm just the man nobody wants," he then wrote on a note. Two hours later, after being found in his gas-filled room, Wellman was revived by police.

Once again he had failed! In the room with the 26-year-old Harvard man were his 1932 sheepskin and a discharge notice from the WPA, $2 in cash and 10 pounds of prunes.

When police, summoned by other lodgers, had broken into the room they found the burners of Wellman's gas plate turned on.

Informed of the note left for him by his son, the Rev. William P. Wellman, of Arlington road, Woburn, said that when Charles entered Harvard he intended becoming a minister.

"My boy's thoughts of becoming a minister were knocked out of his mind long before he was graduated, however," the Rev. Wellman asserted. The minister said that his son's melancholy note, stating that he is "just the man nobody wants," is not all true.

"He knows we will always want him here," said the father. "I just can't understand him doing such a thing."

"If it were not for that note I would never be convinced that he was not overcome by accident."
